

THE VETERANS CONSORTIUM
PRO BONO PROGRAM

1992 2017

LEIGH HILLEBRAND

Volunteer Outreach and Education Coordinator

Leigh Hillebrand serves as the Volunteer Outreach and Education Coordinator with the Veterans Consortium Pro Bono Program. She joined the team in 2013 and previously worked on the Client Services team. She currently supports the Consortium mission by answering inquiries about potential volunteer opportunities for attorneys and assisting with organizing volunteer training. She also assists in the placement of cases with volunteer attorneys and serves as a translator for Spanish-speaking clients. In addition, Leigh is helping to build and implement the organization's social media outreach as the Social Media Coordinator.

Leigh grew up in northeastern Pennsylvania and moved to Washington, DC to attend The George Washington University where she graduated with a bachelor's degree in International Relations and a minor in History from the Elliott School of International Affairs at GWU. She previously worked at various organizations throughout the city as a temp with the Ford Agency before joining The Veterans Consortium. Leigh lives in Washington, DC and enjoys spending her free time hiking, reading, and enjoying all that DC has to offer.

To contact Leigh or for more information on The Veterans Consortium, please contact our Communications & Outreach department at outreach@vetsprobono.org.

www.vetsprobono.org

@vetsprobono #theyfoughtforus

