PRO BONO PROGRAM®

DAVID MYERS, ESQ.

Director of Program Development

Commander David H. Myers, JAGC, USN, (Ret.) serves as Director of Program Development with The Veterans Consortium Pro Bono Program. He retired from the U.S. Navy in May 2000 after 28 years of enlisted and commissioned service, including 24 years as a Navy Judge Advocate. Upon retirement he joined the Consortium as Deputy Director for Case Evaluation. He subsequently served as Director of the Case Evaluation and Placement Component and was Acting Executive Director from October 2014 through June 2015.

During his career, Dave served in a wide range of legal billets, including Senior Trial Counsel, NLSO, Naples, Italy, during the first Gulf War and Military Judge, Navy-Marine Corps Trial Judiciary. During tours at the Criminal Law Division and the Bureau of Naval Personnel he was deeply involved in personnel law issues and sat as voting member of the Clemency and Parole Board. His enlisted service included a deployment to Southeast Asia on the USS Ranger (CVA-61) in 1974. He earned four Meritorious Service Medals.

A native of Centralia, Illinois, Dave is a 1972 graduate of Mac Murray College, Jacksonville, Illinois, and a 1978 graduate of Valparaiso University School of Law, Valparaiso, Indiana. In 1987, he earned a Master of Laws degree from The Army's Judge Advocate General's School.

Dave lives in Annapolis with his wife, Debra. They have a daughter, Kaitlyn, who works with veterans as a career counselor with Jewish Family and Community Services of Pittsburgh. He is a life-long fan of the St. Louis Cardinals and an amateur historian with a deep interest in Abraham Lincoln and the Civil War.
