CATHY KLINGLER

Docket Administrator

Cathy Klingler serves as the Docket Administrator at The Veterans Consortium Pro Bono Program and joined the team in 2000. She supports The Veterans Consortium mission by tracking client due dates and docket activity at the U. S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims.

Cathy is originally from New London, Connecticut, and she graduated from Southern Connecticut State College with a degree in education. She spent 23 years moving around the country as a Coast Guard dependent including two tours in the beautiful state of Alaska. After moving to the D.C. area, she worked for a period of time as a contractor with Gulf War Illnesses before joining The Veterans Consortium.

In her free time, Cathy works with various ministries at St. Joseph Catholic Church, including Arundel House of Hope's Winter Relief Program providing warm shelter and food for the homeless in Anne Arundel

County, Maryland.
