

The Veterans Consortium

PRO BONO PROGRAM®

MIKE KAIL, ESQ.

Director of Program Operations

Mike Kail serves as the Director of Program Operations for The Veterans Consortium. He supports the Consortium mission by overseeing operational activities and setting strategic goals. Prior to this role, Mike served as a Senior Fellow working to shape a program that will provide pro bono legal assistance to veterans whom Consortium volunteers have successfully represented at the U.S. Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims. Mike has played a critical role in the major accomplishments and initiatives of recent years.

Mike is originally from the Northeast, but has lived in Washington, D.C., since 1972. He graduated from Yale College in 1967, where he earned a degree in History, and received his law degree from Yale Law School in 1970. He was a partner in the law firm of Steptoe and Johnson, based in Washington, D.C., through March 2016.

Mike currently lives in Maryland with his wife, Wendy. He enjoys spending as much time as possible with his family, which includes three children and seven grandchildren. He also enjoys reading, writing and working on various home repair projects, from carpentry to plumbing to electrical work.

To contact Mike or for more information on The Veterans Consortium, he can be reached at mike.kail@vetsprobono.org.
