PETER GREGORY

Volunteer Outreach & Education Coordinator

Peter Gregory serves as the Volunteer Outreach and Education Coordinator with The Veterans Consortium Pro Bono Program. He originally joined TVC as a member of the Client Services team in July 2018. In his newest role, he provides The Veterans Consortium with operations support on a broad spectrum, including answering inquiries about potential volunteer opportunities for attorneys, assisting with organizing volunteer training as well as placement of cases with volunteer attorneys, operating the Program's Helpline, compiling program statistics and more. Peter works closely with TVC attorneys to ensure that operations involving TVC and volunteer attorneys run efficiently and smoothly.

Peter was born and raised in Greensboro, North Carolina, until he moved to Chapel Hill, North Carolina to attend college at The University of North Carolina. He graduated with a double major in Global Studies and Geography and a minor in Public Policy. During his time in college, Peter was a leading member of the UNC Sailing Club as well as an active participant in several on-campus activities. After college, and before coming to The Veterans Consortium, Peter spent a year traveling throughout the United States and some of Europe. In his spare time, Peter enjoys sailing, exploring the outdoors, traveling, and having fun dinners out with his friends.
